

YOUM AL-ARD LAND DAY

Saturday March 30, 2013 5 PM
Al-Awda's Palestine National Center
2720 Loker Avenue West Suite J, Carlsbad CA 92010

Youm Al-Ard/Day of The Land has been marked world-wide yearly since the killing on March 30, 1976 of six Palestinians in Galilee by Israeli troops during peaceful protests over the confiscation of Palestinian lands. As part of the annual Youm El-Ard/Day of the Land activities in Southern California, Al-Awda San Diego's Chapter has organized the following program of events:

5:00 PM: Youm Al-Ard and Spring Bazaar

7:00 PM: Significance of Youm Al-Ard In the Palestinian National Struggle For Liberation and Return

7:10 PM Situation in Al-Yarmouk Refugee Camp in Syria; How You Can Help By Khayrieh Zubaid

7:30 PM Screening of "Degrees of Incarceration" Followed by discussion With film maker Nidal Al-Azraq From Aida refugee camp.

About the Film: Degrees of Incarceration documents the effects political imprisonment has on a community of Palestinians in Aida Refugee Camp, Bethlehem in the West Bank. Since 1967, over 600,000 Palestinians have passed through Israeli prisons. The film introduces viewers to Palestinian mothers, teenagers, children, and community leaders as they strive to support each other through crises of arrest and detention. This film demonstrates that Palestinians continue to struggle against the subjugation of their human spirit, and challenges the veracity of portrayals of Palestinians as despairing people.
